THE LADY IN THE VAN

Biography, Comedy, Drama

Check Classification

Starring: Maggie Smith, Alex Jennings, Dominic Cooper

In the 1970s, Mary Shepherd parked her home (a van) on a street in an artsy London neighbourhood. She was cranky, religious, profane and indomitable, and the neighbours muttered about her — but some also brought her gifts. One neighbour, playwright Alan Bennett, took a particular interest in Shepherd and invited her to move her van into his driveway. She stayed there for 15 years.

A new film, The Lady in the Van, tells Shepherd's story. It was adapted from Bennett's memoir and play about his guest, and it stars Alex Jennings as Bennett and Maggie Smith as Shepherd.
